The Top 50: Celebrating the places where people love to work

Tuesday, March 20, 2007

By Steve Massey, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Let's be honest -- few of us get up in the morning raring to go to work. But once we get past the hurdle of knowing we have to go, wouldn't it be nice to know you're going to like it once you get there?

That, in a nutshell, is what we have attempted to do with this year's Top 50 section.

Our annual report is still filled with all that good stuff about which companies made the most money (PNC), grew sales the most (Superior Well Services) and made the most money for their stockholders (Allegheny Technologies). We'll talk more about that later.

What we really wanted to focus on were those local workplaces where employees really like working.
